The University Hatchet

Entered as Second-Class Matter at Post Office, Washington, D. C.

Vol. 52, No. 24 The George Washington University, Washington, D. C. April 23, 1956

Students Present Tour Of New York

• GUYS AND DOLLS will mix with the "unbeatable Yankees" in Times Square as the All-U Follies presents its "grand tour of New York" in Lisner auditorium, Friday at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets for the annual variety show will be sold in the Student Union for the rest of the week for $1.00 or $1.50, or they may be obtained with a Campus Combo. Students presenting activity books will be given reduced rates.

"Fugue for Tinkhorns" from "Guys and Dolls" by Bob Dolson, Bill Driscoll and Don Sebade will open the first half of the show, which portrays the daytime bustle of the heart of the city. Carole Price will give a magic act, and a policeman, played by Bill Dotson, will sing an Irish medley. Roscoe Sweeney will do imitations as a soap box orator in Grammercy Park, followed by Carole Kimball and her psychoanalytic satire, "Bellevue Ballad."

Songs

Sue Steinberg and Bill Throckmorton will sing "It's Never Too Late to Fall in Love" from "The Boy Friend" in a park bench scene in Central Park. A tap dance by Bonnie Borden and Edna Runswick and an Oriental dance by Sigrid Weeks will close the first act.

Jerry Osborne, the master of ceremonies, will conduct the tour and narrate the show in the role of a newsboy.

Council Revises Articles Of Student Government

• THE FOLLOWING recommendations for revisions in the Articles of Student Government were approved by the Student Council April 18. They will be placed on the ballot during the May 2-3 elections.

ARTICLE III, SECTION B, No. 1—Add sentence "The Secretary shall send a copy of the minutes each week to all organizations that request them."

(This is being added on request of the present secretary to insure fuller publicity of Council meetings.)

ARTICLE III, SECTION B, No. 12—Add to the first paragraph and to perform any duties assigned by the Student Council President concerning special projects.

(This addition relates to the duties of school representatives. If passed, the representatives will be responsible for other duties assigned by the president in addition to those infrequent duties which they now perform.)

ARTICLE III, SECTION B, No. 12—Delete second paragraph. (This article will eliminate the subcouncils, since they are ineoperative. Another revision will set up committees to replace the subcouncils. This does not affect the law, medicine, engineering and pharmacy sub-councils.)

ARTICLE III, SECTION H—Delete.

(The section reads: a representative shall be given full voting privileges on the Council whenever the governing body of his school or college is recognized by the Council and the Student Life Committee. This will not effect the present school representatives since abolition of sub-councils makes this deletion desirable.)

ARTICLE IV, SECTION C, No.

1—Add c. "Members of the Student Council shall not expect to graduate from the University during their term of office."

(This will prevent elected officers from willfully quitting their posts before the expiration of their term of office.)

ARTICLE IV, SECTION C, No. 2—(b)—"They must be members of the school or college which they represent at the time of the election."

(This corrects an obvious loophole.)

ARTICLE IV—add new section D—"The members of the Student Council may appoint such committees as they see fit to assist them in carrying out their duties."

(A replacement of sub-councils, this system will allow committees to be formed and disbanded as needed, instead of the present inflexible sub-council system.)

ARTICLE VI—Change Section A to: "The President of the Student Council shall recommend to the President of the University a member of the Board of Editors of the HATCHET to serve on the Student Life Committee."

(This provision puts into writing procedure already in practice.)

ARTICLE VII—Absences—"Five absences from Student Council meetings without the presence of a substitute automatically makes a Student Council member subject for censure or removal from office."

(This will insure steady attendance.)

ARTICLE VIII—Change of wording of title to read "Removal and Censure of Members" and add a second paragraph to read "A 2/3 vote of the Student Council shall be necessary to censure a Student Council member."

Member Runs Apple Contest

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles on the duties and responsibilities of Student Council officers. Petitions are now being accepted in the Student Activities office.)

• THE MEMEBER-AT-LARGE represents the Council on special projects and serves on committees. His duties depend largely on his own interest and enthusiasm. He is in charge of the Apple Blossom Festival princess contest, and he handles student tickets for local theatres and concerts.

The Council publicity director manages bulletin boards and cabinets, keeping them up-to-date, and obtaining times and approvals from the student activities office. He has charge of public-

Candidates

• THERE WILL BE a meeting of all election candidates on Sunday at 1 p.m. All candidates must attend. One semester of summer school will be counted toward the residence requirement for Council posts, announced the Council Advocate.

ity for the Colonial Program series and other Council-sponsored events, and assists University organizations and projects, such as Colonial Boosters and the Career Conference, with their publicity.

The program director has heavy duties during the summer, when he schedules the Colonial Program series. He heads his own committee, arranging for the performance, auditorium and program sequence. He must make many personal contacts, including the U. S. Air Force band, the department of religion, Colonial Boosters, the Career Conference committee and the May Day committee.

The freshman director also has a great deal of summer work. He aids the editor of the Student Handbook, checks with organizations participating in the orientation program and is personally in charge of the freshman orientation dance and the Activities Fair. He has close contact with Big Sis, Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Old Men and other groups especially active in the first week of school. During the spring semester he meets with student leaders and faculty members and sets up the entire schedule for the following year's orientation program.

The activities director serves as chairman of May Day, appointing all committee heads for the event. He is in charge of the Council's summer social functions, which customarily include three dances, and handling faculty relations, music, decorations and publicity. Throughout the winter he works on the social dance program.

The Student Union chairman heads the Student Union board, presiding at its weekly meetings and making reports to the Council. He makes and enforces the Student Union rules and handles suggestions and complaints. He recommends assignment of rooms in the Student Union annex, works with the manager of the University bookstore, co-ordinates the student club dances and works for the improvement of the entire Student Union program.

Colonials Set Sail For Marshall Hall

SHIP UPS ANCHOR
... Colonials Travel on Mt. Vernon

• COLONIAL CRUISE CO-CHAIRMEN Joe Hince and Beverly Borden have announced a full schedule for Saturday's trip to Marshall Hall.

Students, faculty and alumni will begin to board the U. S. S. Mount Vernon at Wilson Line Pier at 1:30 p.m.

Chemist Gets Honor Award

• THE 1956 AWARD of honor of the Washington chapter of the American Institute of Chemists will be presented to Dr. Benjamin D. Van Evera, co-ordinator of scientific activities at the University, tonight.

Dr. Van Evera will receive recognition for his "effective contributions to the field of chemical education, both as teacher and administrator."

Dr. Milton Harris, president of Harris Research Laboratories, will be master of ceremonies, and Dr. George Irving, deputy administrator of the agricultural research service of the Department of Agriculture, will introduce Dr. Van Evera.

National headquarters of A. I. C. will be represented by Dr. Ray Dinsmore, vice president, of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and president of the American Institute of Chemists.

Group Picks Committee On Elections

• MEMBERS OF THE Student Council elections committee have been named and are planning the conduction of the May elections.

Members are Betty Kolonia, Rosa Wiener, Joe King, Dick Sincoff, Mary Lou Bishop, Peggy Nichols and Ernest Auerbach.

The committee prepares Student Council rules under which the elections are conducted, sponsors the elections assembly and prepares and counts the ballots.

A major duty of the committee will be the enforcement of election laws regulating campaigning. Candidates who violate the election rules are subject to disqualification by the Student Council

Ads

• ELECTION advertisements for next Tuesday's HATCHET will be taken this Friday, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Jerry Reinsdorf, advertising manager will lay out the ads. Pictures may be included at the advertisers' expense.

upon a report of infraction by a member of the committee.

The committee has already stopped one violation of the rules. However this violation resulted through a mix-up of information and was not deliberate. The Committee warns, however, that all campaigning must be limited to the period of the election itself.

The boat will leave at 2 p.m., and will dock at Marshall Hall one hour later. Members of the University Band will entertain the voyagers.

Coed recreation, including softball, badminton, horseshoes, volleyball and relay games, is planned from 3:30 to 5:30. Amusements, such as the roller coaster, merry-go-round and ferris wheel, will also be available. There will be free rides for children.

At 6 p.m. the crowd will sit down to a box supper, followed by a community sing around the campfire. The holiday crowd will assemble in the pavilion at 7:45 for entertainment, including student and faculty skits and three acts from the All-U Follies.

Squares

At 8:30 couples will gather into squares for "swing your partner and promenade," with Irvin Gator as caller and the music of Bob Daniels' square dance band.

The group will board the boat for Washington at 10 p.m. The cruisers will dance to the music of the Mount Vernon orchestra during the return trip. The boat will dock at midnight. Cruise tickets are on sale this week in the Student Union for $1.50 or one Campus Combo.

Student baby sitters will watch over the small fry throughout the trip. A tour of the boat and the

Student Bar

• THE STUDENT Bar Association will hold a professional meeting in Lisner lounge April 25 at 8 p.m. Senator Joseph O'Mahoney, Democrat of Wyoming, will speak. His topic will deal with the legal aspects of "bigness" in corporate size, with special reference to the recent case of General Motors.

selection of "King and Queen of the Colonial Cruise" from the small fry has been especially planned for the youngsters.

Boat

A special boat for early departers will leave for Washington at 5:30 p.m.

Alternate date for the Cruise is May 5, in case of poor weather. Postponement plans will be announced on local radio stations, and the University switchboard will be notified of any change.

Working with Mr. Hince and Miss Borden are Bob Sturm and Betsy Reed, recreation; Bernie Passeltiner and Skip Maraney, publicity; Jim Newheiser and Julie Cairns, tickets; and Herb Silver and Bruce Mencher, entertainment.

Also Lou Bernard and Ed Rutsch, children's recreation; Hank Hobbs and Nita Nowlin, king and queen selection; Jack McManus, facilities; Ed Crump, program; Chuck Forbes, songs, and Micky Croce, master of ceremonies.

Bulletin Board

Speech Group Holds Last Meeting; IRC Hears Informal Talk

• SIGMA ALPHA ETA, speech correction fraternity, will hold its final meeting Thursday, April 26, at 8:30 p.m. in Studio B of Lisner auditorium. Dr. Jean Ervin, supervisor of speech education, Arlington County Public Schools, will speak on the "New Speech Therapist in the Public School." Officers will be elected and plans for the annual initiation banquet will be made. All students have been invited.

• ALPHA THETA NU, scholarship holders honorary, will hold elections Thursday, April 26, at 7:30 p.m. in Woodhull C.

• THE INTERNATIONAL Relations Club will meet Tuesday, at 8:30 p.m., in Woodhull House. An informal talk, "Germany Today," will be given by Mr. Herbert Weil, assistant and information secretary of the German Embassy.

• THE WESTMINSTER Foundation will meet in Building O Wednesday at 12:30. Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, professor of religion, will speak on "Man as the Theologian Sees Him." All students have been invited to attend.

• THE CHRISTIAN Science organization will hold its weekly meeting Thursday at 5 p.m. in Building O. All students have been invited.

• THE W.A.A. bowling tournament will be held April 26 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A. All interested women may sign up in Building H or Sorority Hall.

• ALPHA EPSILON PI announces the election of the following officers: Gene Horowitz, president; Neil Shpritz, vice-president; Joe Kellin, treasurer; Jerry Landau, pledge master, and Ronald Lubman, secretary.

• THE UNIVERSITY Band celebrated its annual spring weekend with a picnic Saturday at the Kensington cabin and an awards banquet Sunday in the Green Room of the Broadmoor. Bandsman of the year trophy was presented to Al Bruffey. First, second and third year awards were presented to Janace Hamilton, Barbara North, Wes Schlotzhauer, Neil Shpritz, Fred Timberlake, Harry Handler, Client Wells, Mr. Bruffey and Doris Severe Bruffey.

Women Pick May Queen From Court

• "MAY DAY OVER the Rainbow," the annual May Day program, will be held May 4 at 8:30 p.m. in Lisner auditorium.

Announcement of the Student Council election results and crowning of the 1956 May Queen will highlight the program. Also announced are the 1956-57 board of editors for both the HATCHET and the CHERRY TREE.

Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary for junior, senior, and graduate men, and Mortar Board, national senior women's honorary, will tap new members during the program.

Also on the program is the presentation of four activities prizes. The Hillel Foundation Literary Contest award is also presented at the May Day program.

As his last official duty, Roy Barnard, Student Council president, will crown the May Queen. The Queen is chosen by vote of the University's women students. Women selected by Who's Who this year comprise the election slate.

The University band will furnish music for the entire program in addition to the opening number, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." A special feature will be thirty minutes of song by the University Glee club.

Drive Makes Money For Facilities Here

• THE 1956 ANNUAL Alumni Fund drive has netted over $10,000 for the improvement of University facilities, Judge James R. Kirkland, president of the General Alumni Association, reported to fund workers April 19.

Judge Kirkland spoke at a rally meeting held in Lisner auditorium. The meeting opened the personal solicitation period of the campaign sponsored by the association.

School Gives French Dance

• FRENCH BALLADS AND side-walk cafe scenes set the atmosphere in the Student Union Friday night for the dance sponsored by the School of Government.

The theme, "Moulin Rouge," was carried out in decorations and by the hostesses, members of Chi Omega, Flying Sponsors, the Home Economics club and Sigma Kappa, who wore French peasant blouses and full skirts.

Highlight of the evening was the can-can dance by Joan H. Masterson, assistant instructor of dance, and Steve Luke, accompanied by Frances Haines on the accordion. Dottie Mansfield and Steve Luke were the mistress and master of ceremonies for the evening.

Tillie Mosesso supplied the French street and stage scenes.

The University band played French songs throughout the evening.

The fund drive began February 22 with the mailing of literature to the 80,000 University alumni throughout the world. The 750 workers in the personal contact phase of the campaign are expected to reach 7,500 graduates in the metropolitan Washington area, according to Warren Gould, director of alumni relations. The drive will end June 1.

The Annual Alumni Fund was established in 1934, when the General Alumni Association abolished the practice of collecting annual alumni dues. The drive is open to contributions from undergraduate students, Mr. Gould says, although they will not be solicited.

Big Sis Plan Year Program

• PERSONAL CONTACT with little sisters is the theme of the Big Sis spring workshop to be held Saturday, May 12.

The purpose of Big Sis will be fully explained to its members and the girls will be given a chance to make suggestions and recommendations for next year's program. The group's adviser and the outstanding Big Sis, who will receive an award on May Day, will address the group, after which girls will break up into discussion groups with varied topics.

New officers of Big Sis, selected by the members of Mortar Board March 25, are: Rosalind Hawk, president; Sandra Shoemaker, first vice president; Mary Hoffman, second vice president; Valerie Thornton, recording secretary-treasurer; Loretta Tonelli, corresponding secretary; Frances Bran, membership chairman; Nancy Wilson, registrar; Barbara Suse, publicity chairman, and Tesste Tsangaris, social chairman.

Old Men, male counterpart of Big Sis, will elect new officers at the next meeting. The group is still accepting petitions. Dr. Don C. Faith, director of men's activities, urges all men to join the organization, which he believes is doing a great service.

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young chemical engineer works on new ways to make silicones

Silicones are a new class of man-made chemicals with very unusual properties. Made from sand, they assume the form of rubber, grease, oil and resin. Under extremes of heat and cold, the rubber stays rubbery, the oil oily. Silicones added to fabrics make them exceptionally water-repellent. Silicone makes waxes spread easier... paints almost impervious to weather.

One of the men responsible for finding new ways to produce silicone products is 26-year-old Frank V. Summers.

Summers' Work Interesting, Important

As process engineer of the Silicone Products Department, Frank Summers first compares the results of small-scale, pilot-plant experiments with the production methods in actual use. Then, using his own knowledge of chemical-engineering principles, he designs faster, more efficient and more economical methods of producing silicone products. Frank Summers' excellent training, diversified experience and outstanding personal qualifications make him a valuable contributor to this engineering team.

25,000 College Graduates at General Electric

When Frank Summers came to General Electric in 1949, he already knew the kind of work he wanted to do. Like each of our 25,000 college-graduate employees, he was given his chance to grow and realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: Whenever fresh young minds are given the freedom to make progress, everybody benefits—the individual, the company, and the country.

Educational Relations, General Electric Company, Schenectady 5, New York

FRANK V. SUMMERS joined G.E. in 1949 after receiving a B.S. in Chemical Engineering at Iowa State University the same year. He also graduated from G.E.'s Process Technology program and other specialized courses.

Newman Club Names Outstanding Seniors

• THE NEWMAN CLUB has released the names of twenty outstanding seniors to be honored at the annual Celebrity Capers May 5.

This year's campus "celebrities" are Roy Barnard, Mary Lou Bishop, Norman Cohen, Jack Crehore, Bob Gray, Susan Haynes Harper, Barbara Harvey, Joe Holup and Sam Mawhood.

Also Kyra Mosel, Peggy Nichols, Carol Picton, Eleanor Ready, Sally Ricci, Leon Salzburg, Betsy Silver, Dick Sincoff, Barbara Stuart, Jim Swisher and Rosa Weiner.

The "celebrities" are selected for their achievements and contributions to University life. Each will receive a scroll honoring his work. Mary Dahlstedt, president of the Newman club, will present the awards at intermission.

The dance held, May 5, in the Silver Room of the Hamilton Hotel, is open to all University students. Tickets are $3.50 a couple—and may be obtained from any Newman club member or in the Student Union.

The winner of the "Campus Celebrity Capers May Fifth" word contest will be announced. The winner receives a ten-dollar prize donated by the club. Second prize

Advocate Gives Campaign Rulings

• JERRY REINSORF, Student Council advocate, has clarified several of the campaign rules at the request of candidates.

1. Posters may not be displayed prior to Wednesday, May 2, except those up to 11 by 14 inches which may be placed on the University bulletin boards. Bulletin board posters must bear the stamp of approval issued by the Business Office.

2. Campaigning is not permitted from the east end of Sorority Hall to the west end of Monroe Hall.

3. No campaign literature may be circulated before May 2.

4. Campaign rules apply to the following area: From 19th Street to 23rd Street and from F Street to the north side of Pennsylvania Avenue.

5. Campaigning will not be permitted on the Colonial Cruise.

Mr. Reinsdorf also reminded students that activities books are required for voting. A student who has lost his book may obtain an activities card from the Cashier's Office. He added that all candidates for office should check the Articles of Student Government to make certain they meet the qualifications.

A new feature at this year's Elections Assembly, to be held on May 1, will be free cigarettes distributed by three major cigarette companies through their campus representatives.

Combo Sells For Less

• THE 1956-57 CAMPUS Combo, student activities discount booklet, will offer a saving of $5.50 on the regular price of activities tickets, says Conrad Tuohey, Combo co-chairman.

The Combo will include membership in Colonial Boosters and tickets to Homecoming, the three drama productions, the dance concert, Winter Weekend and the Colonial Cruise.

As outlined by co-chairmen Conrad Tuohey and Kathy Denver, the Combo will sell for $7.50, nearly $3.50 less than this year's price of $10.95. The reduction in price is possible because the Cherry Tree and the all-University fashion show will not be included.

The proposed sales campaign will make the Combo available on the first two days of registration in the cashier's office, where its price may be added to tuition fees. The campaign will then move to a booth in the Student Union for a period of "not more than two weeks," according to Mr. Tuohey.

Working with the co-chairmen are Bob Shuken, general sales chairman; Cece Le Sturgeon, publicity; Tessie Tsangaris, finance, and Kyler Craven, fraternity and sorority sales. Students interested in working on Combo this summer are asked to contact either of the co-chairmen.

Trustee Receives Citation From Student Congress

• MISS HELEN KATHERINE Newman, 1956 University trustee, was the recipient of a Golden Jubilee citation at the Golden Jubilee Student Congress of Delta Sigma Rho.

Miss Newman was one of 19 members cited. Among the other recipients of the awards were Senator Hubert Humphrey, William O. Douglass, Associate United States Supreme Court Justice; David Lilienthal, former AEC chairman, and H. V. Kaltenborn, news commentator.

Miss Newman is librarian of the Supreme Court. After receiving her Master of Laws degree at the University, she became assistant law librarian to the University, secretary of the law school and law librarian. In 1947 Miss Newman received the University's alumni achievement award.

The congress, held at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago, April 12 to 14, was designed to give students an opportunity to put their forensic talents to practical use in politics and legislation. Delta Sigma Rho is a national forensic honorary.

Miss Newman was a member of the University chapter of the honorary.

PiDE Elects New Officers, Initiates Six

• PI DELTA EPSILON, national honorary journalism fraternity, recently initiated six new members and held elections for the coming year. The initiates are Carolyn Cronin, Roberta Holland, Jerome Renton, Vince Rider, Roger Spitzer and Nancy Wilson. New officers are Ernest Auerbach, president; Ray Sullivan, vice president; Miss Wilson, secretary; Mr. Rider, treasurer, and Miss Holland, historian.

Pi Delta Epsilon is pledged to the promotion of student participation in undergraduate publications and seeks to establish a code of ethics among the staffs of individual college publications.

Union Dance Features Skit

• A SNEAK PREVUE of the All-U Follies will highlight the "Swan Dive Dance" on the second floor of the Student Union, April 27 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

The skit will publicize the variety show and provide entertainment for the last Student Union dance of the year.

Harry Handle's combo will play. Marilyn Martin is in charge of decorations. Free coffee and cigarettes will be offered.

The dance is sponsored by the sub-council of the School of Government.

See You Saturday

• SATURDAY IS the day. At two o'clock the Wilson liner lifts anchor from the Maine Avenue dock and sails away for the last All-University function—the Colonial Cruise.

This has been a big year for school-wide socializing and it's encouraging to see that the experiment started a couple year ago with the Campus Combo has turned into such a success. Now the parties and social events have moved away from the cellars of the fraternity houses around campus and the independent has become an important member of the university "family."

Saturday the fraternity men will naturally be on hand, as they have representatives on Campus Combo and are generally present at all such events. But we want the non-fraternity and sorority representation on the Cruise. Independents are definitely a part of the University—a large part—and they are the ones who should take advantage of this outing.

As proof of the independents' increased interest in University activities look at the Intramural program, where as many if not more independent and club teams participate in intramural sports as do fraternity teams. This weekend, with the All-U Follies Friday night and the Colonial Cruise Saturday, will climax the year's slate of university functions and can and will be a tremendous success with the participation and cooperation of the Greeks and the independents in full force.

See you at Marshall Hall.

The Informer

by Mary Lou Bishop

• IF WE MAY start off on a negative note, it begins to look like there are going to be more defeated candidates for office this year than ever before. When the Student Activities Office closed Friday afternoon, there were twenty-nine petitions on file—and five more days for petitioning!

Dick Giesler entered the presidential race, bringing the number of candidates to four. At this rate, anybody with more than five friends might as well try too. We've heard all sorts of predictions on the outcome of the prexy battle but as far as we're concerned anyone could win.

Jim Biller and Ray Garcia, who's been pumping new life into the Student Enrollment Committee, have filed for vice president. Skip Maraney is still playing "Guess what I'm going to do?"

The local Capable-Man-Around-Campus, Jim Newheiser, has petitioned for comptroller. The job requires a year of accounting and so far competition seems nil.

Ruth Reagan is up for secretary, as predicted, and Eugene Lambert has added his name to the member-at-large slate.

Mel Martin and Kathy Denver are both trying for program director. Myra Little is the only petitioner for freshman director to date (Carolyn Cronin's too busy) but we hear rumors that she'll be opposed by Betty Barry. Conrad Tuohy is spearheading a "Draft Tuohy" movement but the response indicates that Helen Niles will have to look elsewhere for activity director competition. (We're only kidding, we think. There are three Phi Sigs in the running already.)

Student Union chairman is the most uncontested office, with absolutely nobody having petitioned and only a mild "maybe" from Bob Shuken.

In the colleges, Sandra Shoemaker has petitioned for Columbian College representative and Tom Smith for School of Government. Eugene Horowitz will file for the latter post at 2:30 this afternoon. Eldon Miller and Mary Alderson have joined the Junior College throng and brought the total of contestants to six, the most in the four-year history of college representatives. Buck Offut signed up for School of Education representative, with the probable backing of the physical education majors. Nancy Wilson has changed her mind and filed for the same office to try to further her plans for the Education School.

Over in Pharmacy, Ronnie Lubman is running for president of the Pharmacy Council in a closed election.

So there we are. Twenty-nine names and more to come, undoubtedly, since there are still eight uncontested offices on the books. We predict three to stay that way, despite the trend toward more contestants, unless someone decides to run for the experience.

Official campaigning won't start for any of the candidates until next week but the verbal "What-a-ma-callit's the best man" is going full tilt. One enterprising campaign manager was all set with pieces of paper stamped with his candidates' names, too, but the advocate ruled him out of order. So make your posters, cry your merits and prepare your speeches, candidates, and the rest of you stay tuned, because next week we'll try to give you a non-partisan run-down on the qualifications and plans of those you'll vote for.

Council Capers

by Doris Rosenberg

• SHARING THE SPOTLIGHT with the proposed constitutional changes at last week's Council meeting was the question of whether the University should join the National Students Association.

Don Clifford, a representative of NSA from Catholic University, was at the meeting to acquaint Council members with this organization. According to Mr. Clifford, there are "five major areas of service in which NSA can help student governments."

First of all, Mr. Clifford said, "NSA can provide a voice for student governments both nationally and internationally." Secondly, NSA facilitates the exchange of ideas, operations and programs, he continued. Most of this exchange is done at meetings, especially the annual NSA Congress, where ideas are exchanged on such topics as military manpower, tax relief for students and desegregation. NSA also sponsors clinics and workshops, and puts out various periodicals and special publications.

Intercollegiate Projects

The third service which NSA offers is planning and promoting intercollegiate projects. As an example of this, Mr. Clifford mentioned the student discount service, a plan whereby campus stores give reduced rates to students. "This plan has been fairly successful all over America," he added. Another project which NSA sponsors is a non-profit travel program which provides low-cost student tours throughout the nation.

Educational benefits and leadership training constitute the fourth area of service which NSA offers. The fifth and last item on NSA's list of services is "serving the general welfare of the nation by sharpening the student awareness," Mr. Clifford concluded.

Questions

Following Don Clifford's enlightening talk was a period of discussion, which was opened with a question from HATCHET News Editor, Ernest Auerbach. Mr. Auerbach's question, "Where does NSA's financial backing come from?" was not adequately answered, however, in his opinion. Mr. Clifford was rather vague, replying that "much of the money comes from foundation grants."

NSA has a present membership of close to 300 schools, including such universities as Princeton, Harvard and Yale. Should the University decide to join, the annual cost would amount to approximately $75, not including the cost of sending delegates to national and regional conventions.

Several other items of importance were also brought up at the meeting. Secretary Bette Kolonia reported that of the 41 organizations on campus, 21 still (See CAPERS, Page 5)

• HAPPY CAMPAIGNING TO ALL AND TO ALL A HELLO!

Hester is not with us this week. It seems that a certain man about campus took exception to one of her comments and took after her with a slightly used pair of white bucks. Hester was last seen heading north on Route 1, clutching her typewriter and shaking her fist, shouting "I shall return."

But Hester or no Hester, life must go on. So on with the show!

The BIG EVENT of the weekend was the SAE Spring Formal Saturday night at the Woodner Hotel. Living it up were Tony Ketcham and Bette Kolonia, ZTA; Jack Hotelling and Sara Jane Miller, Pi Phi; Eldon Miller and Helen Niles, ChiO; Jerry LaFitte and Elva Schroebel, PiPhi; Dick Martin and Jan Swearingen, ChiO; Warren Barley and Kathy Blackburn, KKG, and on and on and on.

On the same night the Sigs held a very gay, very Bohemian Greenwich Village Party, with all the brothers and their dates in costume. George Dancu and Connie McDavitt, KKG, arrived in leopard skin, but minus the leopard. Vernon Gates wandered in as a Swiss yodeler complete with beret. Also seen were pajamas and some costumes defying description. Jean Jablonsky undoubtedly had the most unusual costume prop—a pair of trutches. After the party the brothers accompanied the girls at Strong Hall. Shades of Hattie M!

The Thetas entertained the Phi Sigs at a coffee hour last Monday, likewise the Chi O's and the Delts. Much fun, but no coffee, on both occasions. Theta also announces the pinning of Donna Gumz to Bill Goodwin, Acacia.

Sigma Nu announces the pinning of Ray Garcia to Lois Cobb, AOPi and Wandering Greek. Other pinning—Myra Little, Pi Phi, to West Pointer Ken Whithers.

If anyone has a second-hand ping-pong table, see Roy Barnard. Seems he's in the market for one.

Kappa and PiPhi held a joint shower on Wednesday night for all brides-to-be. In the ensuing festivities Peggy Nichols invited everyone to come to Venezuela and meet all the bachelors. See you in Venezuela.

The ADPI's are not at all happy. In fact, if Ann Sweeney was not getting married next Saturday, they'd be extremely sad. Reason? Their Founder's Day is the same day as the Cruise.

And speaking of the Cruise—see you all at Marshall Hall next Saturday.

Active Cheerleader Will Miss Leading Students

by Elva Schroebel

• FIVE FOOT TWO, with brown hair and brown eyes, petite Betsy Silver has been a familiar sight for the past several years, energetically leading cheers at football and basketball games.

A veteran of three years on the squad, Betsy has survived drizzly Maryland games, poorly attended pep rallies, constant cheerleading practices and come through it all saying cheerleading is "the greatest." "What I like most are the Penn games with the trains going up and the people jitterbugging in the aisles, and the times when people do come out and cheer."

In addition to cheerleading, Betsy has been active in her sorority, Pi Beta Phi, serving as vice president and pledge trainer. Her biggest thrill came when she was sent to the national convention. "It just makes you realize what your sorority really stands for," she says.

Not Too Thin

Betsy was photographic editor of the Cherry Tree in her sophomore year and Greeks editor this year, and served on the Student Council as publicity director in her junior year. "I wasn't on the Cherry Tree while I was working on the Council," she explains, "because I'm a firm believer in not spreading myself too thin."

Betsy is a member of Delta, sorority women's honorary, and was projects' chairman of Tassels, sophomore women's honorary.

Her opinions of G. W. are emphatic. "It's terrific," she says enthusiastically. "I had wanted to go away to school, but my folks wanted me to take my first year at home. After my freshman year, when they asked me where I wanted to go, I was indignant."

History Major

A history major, Betsy plans to work for a year after June graduation and then marry the SAE whose pin and ring she wears.

"But I don't know what I'll do when I come back to games next year," she says. "I've been a cheerleader since junior high and I won't know what to do at a game if I can't lead cheers."

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

Alpha Lambda Delta Sponsors Teas, Panels, Lectures, Show

by Doris Rosenberg

• WITH AN ACTIVE membership of only ten, Alpha Lambda Delta, national freshman women's honorary, has done an outstanding job this past year.

Going far beyond its primary purpose, which is "to promote intelligent living and a high standard of learning" among freshman women, Alpha Lambda Delta has carried a heavy schedule of other activities, including free tutoring, panel discussions and lectures.

Among the various speakers which members enjoyed the past year were Dr. Benjamin D. Van Evera, head of scientific projects at the University, and Eileen Summers of the Washington POST, who spoke on journalism.

The honorary also took part in a panel discussion with Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honorary, last semester. The topic discussed was "Is there a place for religion in university life?"

Alpha Lambda Delta has also been active in service projects. It co-sponsored the scholarship tea in September with Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Theta Tau, scholarship holders' honorary, and helped put on the fashion show at the Big Sis spring orientation coffee hour. Members of Alpha Lambda Delta also do tutoring, free of charge, for women students.

New Project

In addition to this already-impressive list of activities, Alpha Lambda Delta recently decided to undertake a new project to help further high scholarship among freshman women. This new project, patterned after Mortar Board's annual "Smarty Party," will be a tea for all one-semester freshman women who make an average of 3.0 or above in their first semester. The purpose of the tea will be to encourage these women to strive for a 4.0 the following semester, and thus become eligible for candidacy to Alpha Lambda Delta. In order to be eligible for induction into this group, candidates must have completed not more than two semesters of college, at least one of which must have been taken at the University, and must have a Q.P.I. of 3.5 or over.

Last semester 15 girls met these qualifications, and were initiated into the society two weeks ago. The new initiates are Deena Bacalman, Marcia Barrett, Betsy Evans, Edith Fenton, Frances Foltz, Angela Gnotta, Marion Green, Janace Hamilton, Mona Koppel, Faye Motyka, Debbie Reznick, Judith Segal, Sandra Sweadner, Ruth Wexberg and Sylvia Zilber.

Annual Banquet

Following the initiation, the honorary held its annual banquet, at which talks were given by Miss Virginia Kirkbride, director of women's activities, and Miss Helen Yakobson, assistant professor of Russian, and members of Alpha Lambda Delta. Officers elected for the coming year are: Mary Hoffman, president; Faye Motyka, vice president; Ann Cochran Higgins, secretary; Sylvia Zilber, treasurer and Joyce Gray, senior advisor.

Four senior women who have maintained an average of 3.5 throughout their college years were also honored at the banquet and were presented with a certificate. They are Carmel Jones Cassidy, Frances Haines, Jo Ann Henry and Barbara Stuart. Miss Stuart received in addition the book for the senior woman with the highest overall average.

Frances Bran, the retiring president, was mistress of ceremonies at the banquet.

Sorority Group Elects Officers; Seeks Members

• WITH THE COMPLETION of a constitution and the election of officers, the Wandering Greeks are ready to participate in the activities of the campus.

The major purpose of this organization is to provide the means by which transfer students who are members of national sororities not represented at the University can continue the aims and spirit of fraternityhood to which they have been accustomed. Affiliation with the Wandering Greeks is also extended to those who are pledges of non-represented national sororities.

The elected officers are: Alice Vardaman, president; Lois Cobb, vice president; Peggy Mason, secretary-treasurer and Anne Leone, social chairman. Miss Cobb is also Panhellenic representative.

Any girl eligible for membership in the Wandering Greeks is invited to attend the weekly meetings at 7 p.m. in room C of Woodhull House.

Student Runs

• MARY McAULAY, a senior in education at the University, is running for the Democratic national convention.

Mrs. McAulay, a mother of two children, has completed her practice teaching in Arlington, Va., and plans to teach full time after graduation.

Running on an independent slate, Mrs. McAulay favors Kefauver, home rule for the District and civil rights legislation.

Mrs. McAulay has been at the University for her entire school career, except for one semester at Temple University.

Howard Davis, Engineering School Representative, announced that the Engineering Banquet and Ball will be held on May 5 at the Washington Hotel. The affair, which will begin at 7:30, is open to all University students. The cost has been set at $10.

IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK!

All year long you've been promising yourself to go there. Now summer vacation is just around the corner and you still haven't set foot in the place. Shame on you!

But it's not too late. Right now, this very minute, before you weaken, lift up your head and forward march to the place you have been avoiding ever since school began. I refer, of course, to the library.

Now here you are at the library. That wasn't so bad, was it? Of course not! Go inside. What do you see? A sign that says "NO SMOKING." Go outside. Light a Philip Morris. Smoke. Go back inside.

Because now you are ready. Now your trembling resolution is rigid. Now your pulsing psyche is serene. You have been gentled by gentle Philip Morris. You have been tranquilized by a smoke that dotes and pampers and caresses, that lifts the fallen, repairs the shattered, straightens the bent, unravels the knotted, rights the askew, and fastens the unbuttoned.

In the center of the library you see the main circulation desk. Look in the card catalogue for the number of the book you want, write the number on a slip, and hand it to the efficient and obliging young lady at the desk. The efficient and obliging young lady then gives the slip to an efficient and obliging page boy who trots briskly back into the stacks, curls up on a limp leather encyclopedia, and sleeps for an hour or two. Then, puffy but refreshed, he returns your slip to the efficient and obliging young lady at the desk, who tells you one of three things: (a) "Your book is out." (b) "Your book is at the bindery." (c) "Your book is on reserve."

Having learned that the circulation desk hasn't the least intention of ever parting with a book, let us now go into the periodical room. Here we spend hours sifting through an imposing array of magazines—magazines from all the far corners of the earth, magazines of every nature and description—but though we search diligently and well, we cannot find Mad or Confidential.

Next let us venture into the reference room. Here in this hushed, vaulted chamber, we find the true scholars of the university—earnest, dedicated young men and women who care for only one thing in the world: the pursuit of knowledge.

Let us eavesdrop for a moment on this erudite couple poring over heavy tomes at the corner table. Hush! She speaks:

SHE: Whatcha readin', hey?
HE: "The Origin of Species." You ever read it?
SHE: No, but I seen the movie.
HE: Oh.
SHE: You like readin'?
HE: Naah.
SHE: What do you like?
HE: Hockey, licorice, girls, stuff like that.
SHE: Me too, hey.
HE: You pinned or anything?
SHE: Well, sort of. I'm wearin' a fellow's motorcycle emblem... But it's only platonic.
HE: Wanna go out for a smoke?
SHE: Philip Morris?
HE: Of corris!

And as our learned friends take their leave, let us too wend our way homeward—a trifle weary, perhaps, but enlightened and renewed and better citizens for having spent these happy hours in the library. Aloha, library, aloha! © Max Shulman, 1956

The makers of Philip Morris, who sponsor this column, could write volumes about the gentleness of today's Philip Morris, but we'll only tell you this: Take a leaf from our book. Enjoy Philip Morris.

I was top man on the VARSITY squad, but my date thought I was a DRAG!

It's the June Prom and we're out on this terrace. The night's soft and warm and so is the girl. (So am I, cause it's 82°). Suddenly, she says: "Look at you! You're miserable in that Model T tux, but do you have to make me suffer, too?" "But..." says I. "Don't but me!" she replies. "Haven't you heard about the air-conditioned comfort of After Six formal wear?"

Matter of fact, I hadn't. So the next day, I looked over some of those After Six jobs. Man, they really "come on." Make you look slimmer, taller, handsomer. And, look at those colors! Sunset Tones, Parfait Colors, Frosty White. All, with that Super Stain-Shy fabric finish. Take my advice. Try on a cool After Six Dinner Jacket soon!

Law Elections Begin; Voting Stops Tonight

• LAW SCHOOL ELECTIONS opened yesterday and the polls will close tonight.

The campaign began April 16. Petitioning for offices are George Coulter and Clyde F. William, president; Alan Melton and Charles Thompson, day vice-president; Stuart M. Smith and Richard Kline, night vice-president; Walter V. Landry and E. Gene Wade, treasurer, and Erica Laufer and Marie Van Hise, secretary.

Also William Foster, W. Paul Gormley and George Wilsey, day delegate; Mariden F. Deigelmann and Howard Haronian, student book exchange treasurer; Hugh Gordon, Carl G. Love, Edwin F. McDermott and Vincent Sherry, night delegate; and Daniel Kahn and William Watkins, student book exchange manager.

These officers plus the five appointed officers, Student Council delegate, delegate from the American Law School association, delegates for the Case club, the Legal Aid Society and Amicus Curiae make up the Student Bar Association Board of Governors. Amicus Curiae is the law school magazine.

The Law School is one of the four schools which send a representative to the University Student Council from its governing body rather than electing a representative on the general slate.

New Group Forms Here

• THE NEWLY FORMED University chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary, elected officers last Friday.

The group's constitution will be submitted to the Student Council and the Student Life committee. If approved, an installation banquet on May 12 will officially inaugurate the club.

The honorary's officers are Peggy Nichols, president; Tom Johnston, vice-president, and Valentin Suazo, secretary-treasurer. Professor J. Swain of the University of Tennessee, representing the national chapter, will install the local group.

The University Spanish department has been invited to the banquet. The reason for the formation of the group is to increase interest in the Spanish department, said Miss Nichols.

From any angle —
it says "College man"

by Dick Sincoff

• A COUPLE OF years ago some henchmen Hatchetmen looked around for our track team and found we were lacking. They determined to do something about it. For months the Messieurs worked on the project, calling for volunteers, getting few of them, and finally settling for anyone willing to slip on a pair of kangaroo shoes and run.

The track team was an all-out project. Having no track, the team ran at Western High's oval across from Georgetown Hospital. They had a few dual meets, in which footballer Len Ceimelick starred. There was overall little interest in the whole business, however, and the track team dwindled and died, and until we get some facilities, an enlarged coaching staff, and the necessary equipment it will probably not be resurrected.

It's too bad we have no track squad, but it is largely understandable. In spite of the efforts of the HATCHET sports department, the University is really in little position to engage in intercollegiate cinder events at present. The attempt by these young men of a couple of years back to create and maintain a track team and schedule is to be commended, although it was hardly realistic in view of the circumstances.

All this about student efforts to expand our athletics program leads me right into the Rowing Club. Here is a group who, like track, started on their own. They've come along since the initial meetings of last semester and now boast about a dozen members, a volunteer coach, and a shell and oars. They are a serious bunch. During Easter vacation they practiced twice daily. More than just serious intent of the oarsmen, is that they have captured the feelings of a large number of students.

Student interest and sympathy is heartening. The Rowing Club hasn't gotten an overabundance of help from the University; in fact, in the beginning our athletic department pooch-pooched the whole affair. Undismayed and perseverant, the Club plugged harder. The week before last the L. F. C. co-sponsored with the Rowing Club a fraternity Open House, all proceeds of which were turned over to the wave skimmers to help pay for their oars and other equipment.

With the Greeks behind them and their name in the student eye, the rowers have a right to feel they are not considered as the weird and slightly silly creation of some crazy cluck. I assure you they are not. If the oar squad can maintain this level of interest and can keep themselves dedicated, they may well fare a lot better than the track team. No one more than they, realizes the task involved in making themselves an intercollegiate varsity team.

Of course, the University is not absolutely blind about this matter, and I'm sure that Building R would like to boast of a real live rowing team. But so far, the club has not attained the status of a "team," and their job is to prove themselves.

As students we should appreciate this effort, and we should support them, encourage them, and show them that their fellow students and classmates are with them. Rowing is in a better position to survive than track was in 1954. We ought to do our part to see that it does.

• THE SAILING team dropped a dinghy sailing regatta with the Naval Academy at Annapolis last Saturday. The Midshipmen took six out of the seven races on the choppy Severn River to score a 177½ to 125½ win over the Colonial sailors.

George Washington's John Davies was high man for the Colonials with 39½ points, followed closely by Tony Wells with 35, Pete Gianakakis with 28 and Virginia Raven with 23 points.

This Saturday and Sunday the Colonial sailors will race in the Mid-Atlantic championships at Annapolis. If the Colonials survive this round they will race in the finals held May 12 and 13 at Annapolis. The last regatta will be the Greater Washington championships at Annapolis with Navy, Maryland, Catholic University and Georgetown.

• THE GOLFERS scored identical wins over two Southern Conference opponents last Tuesday at Hot Springs, Virginia. The Colonials defeated both VMI and VPI by 11-7 scores to boost their overall match to 3 and 1 and kept their conference record clean with three wins.

Warren Krick of the Colonials fired a 76 in a mixture of rain, snow and sleet to share medal honors with Virginia Tech's Billy Deemer.

MID-ATLANTIC WARM UPS

Larry Spellman, Vic Bartlett, Irv Salamy, Bill Peake and Wayne Ranick also contributed to the scores and the match in which the Colonials have definitely proved themselves one of the top teams in the conference.

• THE TENNIS team dropped its second match of the year to the University of Virginia, 5-4. Although sweeping all the doubles matches, the Colonials could salvage only one of the six singles matches.

Jack Tarr won his singles, 9-7, 4-6, 6-2; Herb Rappaport lost, 6-8, 2-6; Saul Leibowitz dropped his singles, 6-7, 7-9; Neil Walsh lost, 2-6, 3-6; John Bouquet dropped his singles, 3-6, 4-6, and Phil Dobyns lost, 4-6, 0-6.

The doubles combinations of Tarr-Walsh, Leibowitz-Rappaport, Bouquet-Dobyns won their matches but it was too late.

Last Saturday the Colonials got back into stride and crushed VMI 9-0 in a Southern Conference match.

Welling Hall Places First In Track Meet

by Chis McAvoy

• A LARGE, WELL-BALANCED team from Welling Hall ran off with their third consecutive Intramural Track championship last Saturday at Western High School athletic field.

The men from "the Hall" piled up a total of 92½ points in winning over Sigma Chi, with 61 points, and Delta Tau Delta with 42½ points. Other teams "in the running" and their point totals were SAE, 31, Phi Alpha, 21, and Phi Sig and Sigma Nu tied for sixth place with 20 points.

Phi Alpha, for the second straight year, produced the individual high point man in the person of Ardie Baker. Ardie's 21 points, garnered in the middle-distance runs and the broad jump, were enough to edge out Mike Sommer's 20½ points for SAE. Tied for third individual honors with 20 points apiece were Ahmed Shah (Phi Sig) and Bob Sutton (Welling).

Buff Beats Richmond Looney Belts Homer

by Paul Truntich

• AIDED BY RAY LOONEY'S big bat and Richmond's southern hospitality, Steve Bauk hurled the Colonials to a 7-2 triumph over the Spiders last Thursday at Richmond.

Earlier in the week G. W. tied Duke 9-9, the game being called by mutual agreement at the end of nine innings.

By beating Richmond, the Colonials are tied for second place in the Southern Conference along with West Virginia and Richmond with 2-1 records, while William and Mary heads the pack at 3-0. This Saturday the Buff travel to Williamsburg to play W&M for the top spot in the conference.

In recording his third win against one loss, Bauk spun a four-hitter against the Spiders, and, although issuing seven free passes, he fanned six. Ray Looney provided Steve with all the runs he needed as the first baseman from Glassport, Pa., doubled in the first for one run and blasted a three-run homer in the third.

Reid opened the first inning with a single down the first base line. With two out Austin walked. Looney then cracked a long double to score Reid. Colna was hit by a pitch to load the bases, but Henzes skied to center to end the threat.

After Richmond's Sid Foster blasted a home run in the second to tie up the game, the Colonials went ahead to stay in the third. Saffer beat out a hit to short, and Austin reached first on third baseman Saunders' error. Looney followed with his three-run clout to right field. Colna struck out, but Henzes doubled and came in on Bauk's single to center for the fourth run of the inning.

Austin singled in the fourth, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch, and scored on a passed ball. Cilento walked in the fifth, went to second on a single to right by Reid, and scored G. W.'s seventh and final run when right fielder Reynolds threw wild trying to cut him down at third.

In the game with Duke Tuesday at the West Ellipse, the Buff had the Blue Devils on the ropes throughout the game but couldn't come up with the kayo punch, or should I say hit.

Duke moundsmen gave the Colonials 18 walks, uncorked four wild pitches, and even hit a batter to boot. In the field the Blue Devils tried to make things easier for G. W. by committing four errors.

The Buff left 17 runners on base as G. W. could collect only four hits in their attack while Duke banged out ten, including the long range artillery of two doubles, two triples, and a home run.

The Buff jumped to a two-run lead in the first inning on a bunt single by Reid and four walks. The Blue Devils scored three in the third to take the lead, but G. W. bounced back with four more in the home third for a 6-3 advantage. Dick Cilento's two-run single was the key blow of the inning.

Duke began to peck away, scoring two in the fourth, one in the sixth, and three in the seventh, to take a 9-6 lead. In the bottom of the seventh the Colonials scored twice without the aid of a hit. A walk, hit batsman, and two wild pitches did the trick.

In the last of the ninth Hill led off with a walk. After Saffer popped out, Austin hit a double to right center to score Hill with the tying run. Claypool, who replaced Bauk in the ninth, got on when the second baseman fumbled his grounder and proceeded to steal second. Any kind of hit or error would have won the game, but freshman second baseman Howard fanned the breeze to end the game in a 9-9 deadlock.

Besides the game with William and Mary Saturday, the Colonials play two more games this week, a conference game with VMI here and an encounter with the Hokies at Georgetown. The game with VPI last Monday which was rained out was rescheduled as part of a double header.

When your big theme rates "A"
And you're feeling real gay
To top off the day—have a CAMEL!

—Man, that's pure pleasure!

It's a psychological fact:
Pleasure helps your disposition.

If you're a smoker, remember—more people get more pure pleasure from Camels than from any other cigarette!

No other cigarette is so rich-tasting, yet so mild!
